M100465 Muffler

Introducing an updated muffler that is more in tune with what you need.

You told us you needed a more cost-effective muffler option. We listened, we acted, and we aren't going to be quiet about it.

The updated M100465 muffler from Donaldson provides:

- New lightweight design minimizes stress and vibration on mounted system
- High quality materials and construction — designed and manufactured in the USA, using aluminized steel
- Extensive distribution network and support for unmatched availability

Donaldson has been a leading supplier of exhaust systems for more than 60 years, meeting specific performance requirements for medium-and heavy-duty diesel powered equipment.
